About This Teacher Author

Hi there! I'm Jenn and I believe in the big brain power of little learners!

I've been working with Pre-K and Elementary students for the past 16 years. I'm certified as an Elementary Teacher (K-6) as well as in Remedial Reading and Language Arts. I have taught as a third and first grade teacher, and I'll admit... first grade has my heart!

I love designing resources to keep my students engaged! Since I teach using mostly small group instruction throughout the day, I'm always creating center resources, and resources that can help students develop independence in the classroom.
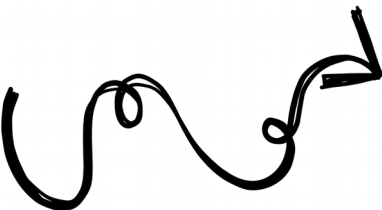

I'd love to hear how you use these resources in your classroom!

I'd love to share more with you! Check out my blog!
