Make Way For Ducklings

Book Companion

The screenshot displays a Google Slides presentation titled "Make Way For Ducklings". The interface includes a menu bar (File, Edit, View, Insert, Format, Slide, Arrange, Tools, Add-ons, Help) and a toolbar with various editing tools. The main slide area shows a presentation titled "Make Way For Ducklings" with the text "I read Make Way For Ducklings." and "I can write and draw about my favorite part." Below the text is a large yellow rectangular area for drawing. To the left of the main slide, there is a sidebar with a list of slides, including a title slide and several numbered slides (1-5). An orange callout box with a pointer indicates that users should click in the yellow box to type about their favorite part. Another orange callout box explains how to insert a picture: "To make a picture choose one option: *Draw a picture. Take a photo and insert it into the picture space. *use the shape, line, and photo tools to make a picture on your computer!". A third orange callout box points to the "Insert" menu, showing options like "Shapes", "Arrows", "Callouts", "Equation", "Line", "Arrow", "Elbow Connector", "Curved Connector", "Curve", "Polyline", and "Scribble". The bottom of the slide shows a "Click to add speaker notes" area.
